He Assisted Greatly in the Rebuilding
And Beautifying of This Church
Following the Fire Christmas Eve 1955

The foregoing has been verified from the Parish Register of Holy Innocents Church in the Maryland Diocesan Library and the Parish Registers of St. Thomas, Alameda, Baltimore, the Maryland Cathedral Church of the Incarnation, and St. Thomas Church, Garrison Forest, Md.

Mrs Arthur C. Bushey, Sr. then outlined the large family of her grandparents Ritter so that younger members of the family would understand the relationship of those who visited each summer at her mothers home. The Ritter grandparents raised his children, her children and their children. These data were checked, prior to Mrs Harlan Alberta Bushey Kent becoming a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, with the old Ritter Family Bible held by Mrs Ella Ellsworth Moore McCreary of Ten Hills, Baltimore, Md. and found to be correct.

Although the remainder of the data in the Bible also fell within the knowledge of Arthur Clifton Bushey(Sr) and Alberta Ritter King Bushey and much of it was transcribed from old Family Bibles (whose location presently are not known), the entries in many instances cannot be considered original. Inasmuch as all of these people attended Hannah More Chapel and later All Saints Church and all of them known to us today either attended Hannah More Academy or schools operated by the Parish, the clergy thereof or the Mother Parish of Garrison Forest; the Rev W. Scott Broadbent, Rector of Reisterstown Parish was requested to furnish statistics on these families. He graciously complied and furnished us with much information, more than actually needed. The information has been kept in the form set forth by Arthur Clifton, Sr. and Alberta R.K. Bushey. Many details and most of the children of later generations have been omitted because the lists of children are not complete and listing them might give the wrong impression of completeness and, further, these data may readily be obtained from the appropriate P.E. Parish Register. Where the Reisterstown P.E. Parish Registers do not furnish information clearly and positively, the information from other sources and the sources have been underlined.

RITTER FAMILY OF RITTERS LANE, OWINGS MILLS

HARRISON MEADOWS FARM

The Reisterstown P.E. Parish Register clearly establishes Joseph and Margaret (Bell) Ritter as parents of children (a)(b)(c) and (g). This was the second marriage of both, Joseph having 3 children by his first wife, Margaret having 3 children by Jacob Ritter, her first husband who was a brother of Joseph, and Joseph and Margaret having 7 children.

Joseph Ritter and Margaret A. Bell were married Jan. 29, 1836.

Joseph Ritter was born 1804.

Joseph Ritter died April 16, 1887. Buried April 18, 1887 from Hannah More Chapel in Stone Chapel Cemetery.

KING FAMILY OF "IDLE HOUR", DELIGHT, MD.

William John King, son of Peter and Bridget King, born July 15, 1838, baptized March 5, 1844, Page 276, Old St. Pauls P.E. Parish Register, Baltimore 1832-1878. Died Oct. 19, 1898, buried Oct. 19, 1898, aged 63, by Rev. Joseph Fletcher from All Saints Church in the Churchyard, Section E, Lot No. 136, "AGED 63" and the tombstone date of birth are wrong. Records and his children agree with the entry in Old St. Pauls Register. (He was a Confederate Soldier)

His wife Josephine (Ritter) King, died Aug. 4, 1915, buried Aug. 8, 1915, aged 79, by Rev. Dr. George Washington Dame from All Saints Church in Churchyard alongside her husband. The entry "Caroline F. King" in the Reisterstown Register is obviously wrong.

Josephine Ritter King was confirmed May 22, 1872 by Bishop Pinkney Presented by Rev Francis B. Dunham, Church of the Holy Cross Parish Register, Millington, Baltimore. Filed in the Md. P.E. Diocesan Library. William John King and Josephine Ritter married Sept. 10, 1866 in Bishop Chatcoat Memorial Methodist Church, Baltimore.

Tombstone in All Saints Churchyard for Josephine King reads March 31, 1842 - August 4, 1915.

Their children were:

- (a) Carrie, buried in Stone Chapel Cemetery in Lot of Grandparents Joseph and Margaret (Bell) Ritter.
- (b) Sylvester and Minerva (Nelson) his wife, communicants. Her name appears once as "Blanche" in the Reisterstown P.E. Register. This large family is continued in the St. Thomas, Garrison Forest Register. Sylvester and Minerva buried from St. Thomas Garrison Forest Church in Churchyard.

- (f) Joseph Rufus and wife Edna (Merryman), communicants. He is the only child of Wm. John and Josephine Ritter King now living.
- (g) Mary, died in infancy.
- (h) Rosalind, died in infancy.

The Holy Cross P.E. Church Register in the Diocesan Library shows that

(d) Alberta Ritter King was born February 21, 1873 and was baptized Sept. 10, 1873 by the Rev. Francis B. Dunham. Either (g) or (h) appears as "Josephine" in the Register born April 16, 1875, baptized Sept. 26, 1875.

2

The foregoing entries in the Holy Cross Register are headed "copied from the St. Lukes Register". The St. Lukes P.E. Parish Register has the following earlier entries:

Josephine (Ritter) King (She was the wife of Wm. John King). Baptized by the Rev Reginald Murphy. Sponsors Wm. H. and M. Brown.

Eldridge (Edgar) King, age 5, baptized by the Rev. Mr. Murphy Dec. 17, 1871.

Sylvester King, age 2, baptized by the Rev. Mr. Murphy Dec. 17, 1871.

(The Rev. Mr. Murphy and later the Rev. Dr. Dame, both Baltimore clergymen, had their influence over all branches of the family, the former as headmaster of a school in Reisterstown and the latter as the Rector there.)

BUSHEY FAMILY OF DELIGHT, MD.

1. Andrew Jackson Bushey, born Feb. 25, 1828, died Feb. 8, 1895, buried Feb. 11, 1895 in Reisterstown M.E. Cemetery by the Rev. Joseph Fletcher. He was the son of John and Ruth (Brown) Bushey. His wife was Mary Elizabeth Gardner, born Jan. 15, 1837, (The gravestone shows 1840, but family records indicate that Jan. 15, 1836 or 1837 is correct), died June 24, 1916, buried in Reisterstown M.E. Cemetery.

She was the daughter of Jonsie and Miranda Gardner. Andrew and Mary were confirmed May 10, 1868. (Parentage of both, their births, baptisms, confirmation deaths and their children are complete in Reisterstown Prot. Episc. Register.)

Druid Ridge Cemetery Records.
